

CONTRIBUTION FORM

The Saskatchewan Pension Plan: convenient and affordable!

- Contribute up to $600 a year, until age 71.
- No "earned income" requirement (unlike other RRSPs).
- Your spouse may contribute for you and receive a tax deduction if he/she qualifies under RRSP guidelines.
- Competitive rate of return.

Contribute today!

It's as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Fill in the Contribution Receipt for your records.
2. Complete and sign the Contribution Form. (Be sure to indicate the plan year.)
3. Take the form to your bank or mail your form and payment to:

Saskatchewan Pension Plan
 Box 5555
 Kindersley, SK S0L 1S0

Tax deduction rules:

- SPP contributions are deductible by you or your spouse within RRSP guidelines.
- The maximum deduction is $600, even if you are contributing for you and your spouse.
- Contributions made between January 1 and March 1 may be tax deductible for the current or previous tax year.
- Contributions made between March 2 and December 31 may be tax deductible for the current year only.
- Contribution deadline for each plan year is March 1. During a leap year, the deadline is February 29.
