Instructions

Who can use this form?

Carrier of a RRIF

You can use this form to record a direct transfer of all or part of the property of the fund to a member's account in the Saskatchewan Pension Plan (SPP). The member of the SPP and the annuitant of the RRIF must be the same person.

Issuer of an unmatured RRSP

You can use this form to record a direct transfer of all or part of the property of the fund to a member's account in the SPP. The member of the SPP and the annuitant of the RRSP must be the same person.

Who completes this form?

Area I

The annuitant asking for the transfer completes and signs Area I. In place of a signature, the transferee who completes Area I for the annuitant can attach a copy of a signed letter from the annuitant asking for the direct transfer.

Area II

The transferee completes and signs Area II. The SPP sends the form to the RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier from which the funds are to be transferred (the transferor).

Area III

The transferor completes and signs Area III. The transferor sends the form back to SPP, along with the funds being transferred.

Area IV

The SPP completes and signs Area IV. The SPP keeps the original form and sends a confirmation letter to the member.

Reporting requirements

A direct transfer does not cause the amount transferred to become income of the annuitant. Consequently, the transferor should not report the amount transferred on a T4RSP or T4RIF slip. Similarly, the SPP should not issue an official receipt, since the member cannot deduct the amount transferred.

Other requirements

In all cases, the transferor should not withhold income tax from the amount directly transferred. Any amounts transferred to the SPP cannot be in kind.
